

Enjoy Tsuyama's food in every season!

Spring Strawberry Parfait

Strawberry parfait made with an abundance of seasonal strawberries. In spring, Tsuyama is in full bloom with cherry blossoms. Please enjoy the strawberry parfait with a spectacular view of cherry blossoms.

Summer Shaved Ice

Because Tsuyama is a basin, the summer temperatures are extremely high, making shaved ice especially tasty. Please enjoy the shaved ice while admiring the natural beauty of Tsuyama.

Autumn Pione

The Tsuyama area is a major grape growing region. Beautiful greenery, abundant water, and a temperature difference between day and night are all conditions for grapes to grow well. Please enjoy the large and voluminous Pione grapes!

Winter Sozuri Nabe

A typical local cuisine of Tsuyama City that has been popular since ancient times. This nabe is filled with sozuri meat, the meat around the bones that has been shaved off. Please enjoy the taste of each restaurant's soup stock.

This is the most popular souvenir from Tsuyama!

Sake that goes well with meat in Tsuyama, a sacred place for beef culture

Tsuyama is a sacred place for beef culture. Since the distribution of cattle and horses has been prosperous since ancient times, there has been a culture of meat eating since the time when meat eating was banned. Please enjoy it with beef dishes.

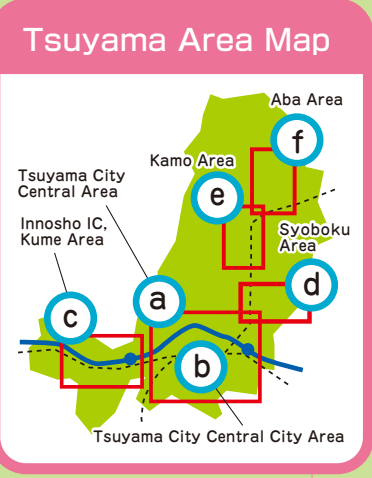

Local sweets made with 100% Tsuyama wheat "Fukuhonoka" dough

Japanese and Western confectioners in the Tsuyama area have created original roll cakes by incorporating Tsuyama flour and other local products, and are selling them under the unified brand name "Tsuyama Roll". They can be kept for 7 to 10 days, making them a good souvenir from Tsuyama.
